

PREMIUM SMS OVERVIEW

mBlox processes over $500 million in mobile transactions per year.

mBlox Premium SMS Overview

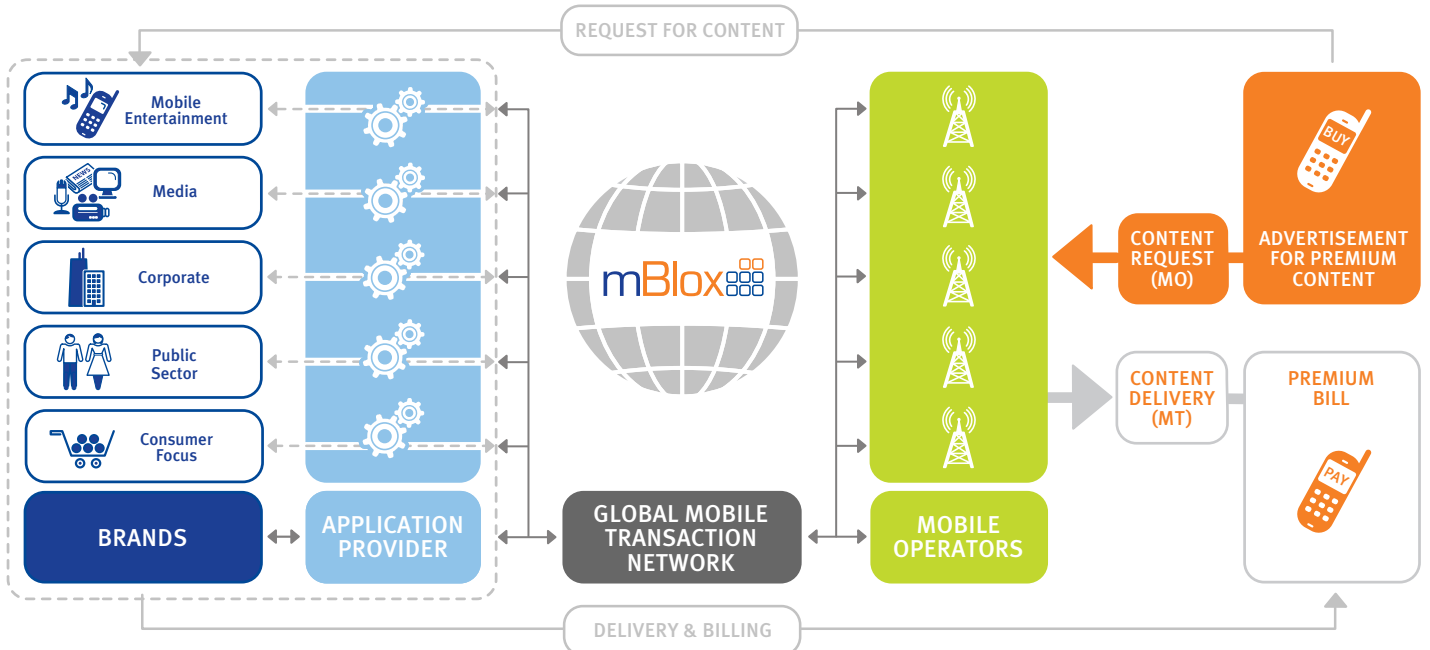

The market has spoken: For mobile services delivery and billing, Premium SMS (PSMS) is the model of choice. Consumers like it because it doesn't require them to register or divulge personal information. Content providers prefer it because they rapidly benefit from a new, easy-to-implement revenue stream. Highly effective, PSMS simply outperforms other micropayment solutions.

mBlox's Premium SMS service helps companies take advantage of mobile payments and quickly generate revenue, selling news updates, games, chat and other content. As the world's largest mobile transaction network, mBlox offers companies a recognized, reliable and comprehensive PSMS service.

At the heart of our network is the mBlox Mobile Transaction Platform which is architected, designed and deployed on a global scale, with global reach, and is backed by superior service and technical support teams. mBlox has been intensively developing and evolving its platform since 1999.

mBlox is committed to providing clients with dependable message transport, accurate financial settlement and extensive geographic coverage in more than 180 countries. Focused exclusively on the infrastructure services of delivery and billing, mBlox is in the business of connecting content providers with their customers.
